

Customer id is one to many to payments because a customer could make many payments but there can only be one payment at a time per customer.

Staff id is one to many to payments because a staff member could make many payments but there can only be one payment at a time per staff member.

Concession is 0 to many because they do not have to buy anything from concession but if they do it could be many things but if a payment is made from concession it will be one payment at a time.

Movies is one to one because only one ticket will get you in to see one movie. The ticket can't get you in to see a different movie.

Tickets to payments is one to many because you could have multiple tickets purchased at once but you can only have one payment at a time.